AMONG THE CHURCHES

VINE STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.

All services were well attended Sunday, it being the last day of the rally and the attendance was very large. The two clubs, viz., Queen Esther, Mrs. C. Diggs, president; King David, Thomas Pollard, president. King David took the banner with much rejoicing. Mrs. Anna Howard, 1513 E. 21st street, celebrated her 24th anniversary Thursday, the 25th, with a fine dinner. Many fine presents were presented her. About 26 were present. We hope her a long and prosperous life. Mrs. Gertrude Tibbs will spend the week in Carthage, Mo., with her sick sister. She will bring Master Junior Tibbs with her on her return. Mrs. Hill Matron of the South Side Juvenile Court, made a fine address to the B. Y. P. U. Dr. Tillman responded and his address was indeed fine. We are thankful to them for their time and talent and hope they will visit us again.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH.

During the absence of the pastor, who attended the State Convention at Springfield, Mo., Dr. Jordan, secretary of the Foreign Mission Board, preached in the morning and Rev. Smith in the evening. Rev. Smith is also a returned missionary from Africa. There were six additions. "The Ankler Express" entertainment given last Thursday was a success. The Mission Circle held a very interesting session at the home of Mrs. C. H. Smith, 2505 Highland avenue. The B. Y. P. U. and Sunday School are progressing nicely. Strangers are especially welcome to share our church home.

ALLEN CHAPEL.

By Della H. Mosee.

A large number were in attendance at the Sunday morning service when J. Arthur Hamlett, D. D., of Jackson, Tenn., editor of the Christian Index of the C. M. E. Church, occupied the pulpit. Dr. Hamlett delivered an able sermon which gave inspiration and food for thought. The return visit was made to St. Stephens' Baptist Church at 3 p. m. last Sunday and a splendid collection of $65.56 was lifted. Arrangements are being made toward looking after Thanksgiving dinner. Strenuous efforts are being made to raise a large sum to pay on the mortgage indebtedness of the church. The Mite Missionary Society held its regular meeting Monday afternoon. The Christian Endeavor Societies invite you to attend their meetings Sunday evenings at 6:00 p. m. Harriet Mildred Hardy, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hardy, was christened Sunday morning. Mrs. Hardy was formerly Miss Effie Grant of Western University. More than 1,500 of our race gathered at Allen Chapel last Sunday night to hear Rev. Burris A. Jenkins deliver an address on "The War." Seeing "our boys" in uniform and hearing this talk straight from the trenches we could fully realize that America is indeed at war. Come and share our church services with us.

cravenettes and gaberdines for men, women and children, and the interest shown by the public in taking advantage of our offer to save money by making a trip to our place is certain evidence of the fact that the Negro is waking up. He is acting in time, he is not waiting for the cold blasts of winter and the high prices of hard times to catch him unprepared. At this time we are emphasizing our invitation to the public to give us an immediate call, save money and take your choice of the biggest line of raincoats of all kinds in the city.

THE PEOPLE ARE WAKING UP.

One week has now passed since we announced our handling of raincoats,
